CALIFORNIAVOLUNTEERS SPONSORS NEW PLAYGROUND AT THE BOYS & GIRLS CLUB OF NORTH COUNTY TO CELEBRATE THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF CESAR E. CHAVEZ

Playground is one of six constructed simultaneously by volunteers throughout California to celebrate Global Youth Service Day 2009

FALLBROOK – CaliforniaVolunteers, The Boys & Girls Club of North County, organizers from KaBOOM! and hundreds of volunteers joined forces on Saturday, April 25 to build a safe, new playground at The Boys & Girls Club of North County. This playspace project is one of seven sponsored by CaliforniaVolunteers this year to honor Cesar Chavez' legacy of community building and service.

"Cesar E. Chavez was a champion of service and community involvement, and this playground is a great way to honor his legacy," said Karen Baker, Secretary of Service and Volunteering. "This initiative clearly demonstrates the power volunteers have to shape their communities."

Six playgrounds were constructed by more than 1,800 volunteers today in the following communities: Fullerton, San Bernardino, Fallbrook (San Diego County), Lemoore (Fresno County), Delano (Kern County) and Sacramento. On June 22, one additional playground will be constructed in San Francisco.

Planning committees made up of community members, children and parents organized volunteer recruitment, site preparation and safety/logistics for each of the builds. Planning for the playgrounds began in March, when children from each community met with organizers from KaBOOM! and CaliforniaVolunteers to draw their "dream" playspaces, which were used to inspire the final designs. A unique mural and garden will be established at each site to celebrate the life and legacy of Cesar E. Chavez.

Earlier this week, Governor Schwarzenegger proclaimed April 19-25 Volunteer Week and April 25, Youth Service Day in California.

“Today we honor our young people who have committed themselves to making California stronger through service,” said Governor Schwarzenegger.

Since 2007, CaliforniaVolunteers, as part of the Cesar Chavez Day initiative, has sponsored more than 20 playspace builds with more than 6,000 volunteers and supported 77 afterschool service clubs in Title I middle schools across the state.
